The Wine Pairing

Peter, Harry and Ed in collaboration with our kitchen team have created a unique wine pairing to accompany your menu.

The interaction between food and wine can alter our perception of taste. Our wine pairing selections take advantage of this effect to enhance your experience of both food and wine.

We believe the most effective wine pairings will balance, harmonise or amplify the flavours of the dishes and the characteristics of the wine, adding an extra dimension to your dining experience.

The wine pairing gives you the chance to explore a range of fascinating wines from around the world if you are feeling either adventurous or indecisive!

The team have chosen...

We have asked the team to choose their dream wines: the wines they would love to drink with dinner if they came and dined here at Restaurant Sat Bains and we have decided to make them a little more approachable for you to enjoy them.

We hope you will share our taste!

White

2020 Domaine de la Coulée-de-Serrant 'Les Vieux Clos', Savennières, France £160

Made by the iconic biodynamic wine producer, Nicolas Joly, this Chenin Blanc is full bodied and rich, with beautiful mineral character.

2014 Clemens Busch 'Marienburg' Raffles Riesling, Mosel, Germany £200

Without doubt, one of the worlds most respected Riesling producers. Racy acidity, exotic fruit notes and a touch of residual sugar.

2016 E. Guigal 'Ex Voto', White Hermitage, France £370

Only produced in exceptional vintages, this wine is incredibly aromatic and complex, with notes of acacia flower, honey, and toast on the finish.

2015 Pierre Yves Colin Morey 1^{er} Cru 'Les Chenevottes' Burgundy, France £590

From one of the worlds most iconic winemakers. This wine displays bright acidity, white flowers, and lemon notes, and a subtle minerality on the finish.

Red

2019 Arnot-Roberts 'Que Syrah' Syrah, Sonoma, California £175

Coming from the oldest planting of Syrah on the Sonoma coast, this is a very aromatic wine with notes of briary fruit and spices.

2014 Cellar Cal Pla 'Planots', Priorat, Spain £175

From vines of over 100 years of age which yield tiny amounts of grapes, this wine is aged in new French oak, giving it plenty of spice character, complementing its power and depth.

2015 Ridge 'Monte Bello' Bordeaux Blend, Santa Cruz Mountain, California £385

Powerful and rich with notes of red berry and spice, this wine is based on a classic Bordeaux blend, and is one of our absolute favourites.

2000 Carruades de Lafite, Bordeaux, France £620

From an estate owned by the Rothschild Family since 1858, This wine boasts notes of pencil shavings, black cherry, and cassis character.
